

OCCUPATION LIST

COMBINED OCCUPATION LIST

You can use the Combined Occupation List to monitor the changes of occupations on the occupation list. For example, some occupations were removed and added back on. It allows you to easily identify whether an occupation was on the list at a certain point in time.

This document combines the following legislative instruments for the following subclasses:

- Subclass 482 – Temporary Skill Shortage
- Subclass 186 – Employer Nomination Scheme
- Subclass 189 – Skilled Independent
- Subclass 190 – Skilled Nominated
- Subclass 489 – Skilled Regional \(Provisional\)
- Subclass 485 – Temporary Graduate
- Subclass 407 – Training
- Subclass 187 – Regional Sponsored Migration Scheme \(RSMS\)

These occupations are reviewed every six months to ensure that they respond accurately to the genuine skills need and labour shortages across Australia. All changes that have occurred since April 2017 have been incorporated into this list.

The list is colour-coded to identify the different lists occurring at different times.

Caveats/Inapplicability Conditions have been introduced to ensure that the skilled positions are only used where there is a local labour shortage. These inapplicability conditions will only apply to Subclass 482 and Subclass 186. You can click on those numbers which will bring you to the description of the caveat imposed.

KEY

- Where it says 'ALL' this means it is available for all seven (7) subclasses (482, 186, 189, 190, 489, 485, 407).
 - Where there are numbers indicated, those are the particular subclasses this occupation can be used for.
 - 489 (FN) – Subclass 489 (Family Nominated) and 489(ST) – Subclass 489 (State or Territory Nominated)
